A couple take time...

Excuse me, are you watching this video?

Look over there, please.

Can you see that car?

No?

Well, can you hear it?

Listen!

Look and listen are acts.

See and hear are abilities.

Watch is for a time period...

These verbs communicate ability.

Can you...?

hear
taste
smell
feel

It depends on what you do with your senses:

	Body Part	Ability	Act	Period of time
	Eyes	see	look at	watch
	Ears	hear	Listen!	listen to

They all have nouns, too.

In fact, they even have adjectives!

noun	verb	adjective	Examples:
sight	see, look, watch	good-looking	You`ve got a good-looking bunch of kids.
hearing	hear, listen to	good-sounding	Martin makes a good-sounding guitar.
sense of smell	smell	smelly	Put those smelly socks in the hamper, please.
sense of touch	feel, touch	sensitive	Your skin is sensitive enough to feel the sun.

Does that make sense?
